COUNTY ADDS FOLLOW UP TO PARENT WORKSHOP

Parents request more information on how to talk to their kids about sex.

Monroe County Executive Jack Doyle announced the new Not Me, Not Now Part II Parent Workshops as a follow up to the Part 1 Parent Workshops. The Part I sessions help parents develop parent-child communication skills, solve conflicts, and learn how and when to talk to children about sex. The Part II sessions discuss the importance of family values. Both sessions are free.

"Parents who attend our workshops tell us how valuable the information presented is with regard to raising their children in this day and age," said Doyle.

Dennis Boike, Ph.D. of Boike Counseling and Cookie Waller of Prevention Partners, facilitate the workshops starting at 7:00 p.m. Part I workshops are:

- Monday, November 6 – Chili Community Center, 4400 Buffalo Road
- Monday, November 27 – St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Church, 3474 Brick Schoolhouse Road, Hamlin

Part II workshops also begin at 7:00 p.m. and are:

- Monday, November 20 — Plank Road South Elementary School, 715 Plank Road, Webster
- Monday, December 4 — Chili Community Center, 4400 Buffalo Road
- Tuesday, December 12 — St. Elizabeth Seton Church, 3474 Brick Schoolhouse Road, Hamlin

Not Me, Not Now is a teen pregnancy prevention program designed to encourage kids, ages 9 to 14, to delay sexual activity. Through television and radio commercials, young kids deliver an abstinence message to their peers that promotes the importance of goal setting and building dreams over being involved in a sexual relationship. Monroe County created the program in 1994.
